Dining

Dozens of restaurants located on or near the Parkway serve plenty of dining options for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Choices of Pigeon Forge restaurants range from popular national chain restaurants to local diners and family owned restaurants. Take your pick from Mexican, Italian, Chinese, Japanese, pizza, seafood, catfish, steaks, hickory-smoked barbecue, giant buffets, salad bars, homemade sandwiches, and fantastic, down home Southern cuisine.

Smoky Mountains

The Smoky Mountains, named for the blue-like smoky mist or haze that surrounds them, make a picturesque backdrop for Pigeon Forge, Tennessee. On your Smoky Mountains vacation discover 500 thousand acres of Southern Appalachian wilderness on one of the oldest uplands on earth! The Smoky Mountains are 95 percent forest - home to diverse wildlife, breathtaking streams, waterfalls and flowering plants. It's no wonder millions flock to the Smoky Mountains each year!

Theaters & Shows

You'll be on the edge of your seat with all of our exciting Pigeon Forge shows! There are dozens of Pigeon Forge theaters to visit.

Try to fit in one of the five dinner shows. There are a variety of music genres at each show. Some include Broadway, rock n' roll, country, bluegrass, and even gospel. Comedy and even magic tricks ensue through out the Pigeon Forge shows.
